Stand out from the crowd with the DPT program at the University of Saint Mary.

The doctor of physical therapy is increasingly becoming the industry standard for practicing physical therapists.

Physical therapy is a high demand field, and there are few schools in the Kansas City area offering a doctor-level program. Fewer still feature USM’s emphasis on core values.

At USM, you’ll find a dynamic, hands-on program dedicated to helping you find your purpose and inspiring you to serve the needs of others.

Upon graduation from the DPT program at USM, you’ll practice physical therapy at entry-level competencies consistent with the Guide to Physical Therapist Practice and the American Physical Therapy Association’s Standards of Practice, Code of Ethics and Guide for Professional Conduct.

+ A Values-Centered Education: Designed to help you become a fully perceptive practitioner, responsive to the needs of patients, colleagues, and the larger community

+ A 3-Year Program with an emphasis on clinical experience

+ Cutting Edge: State-of-the-art facilities and research capabilities

+ Learn from the Pros: The USM DPT program draws from the expertise of professionals dedicated to the science and art of physical therapy.

Applicants must hold a baccalaureate degree from an accredited institution that is recognized by the University of Saint Mary in any field other than physical therapy.

Effective May 2, 2012, the Doctor of Physical Therapy Program at the University of Saint Mary has been granted Candidate for Accreditation status by the Commission on Accreditation in Physical Therapy Education of the American Physical Therapy Association (1111 North Fairfax Street, Alexandria, VA, 22314; phone: 703-706-3245; email: accreditation@apta.org). Candidacy is not an accreditation status nor does it assure eventual accreditation. Candidate for Accreditation is a pre-accreditation status of affiliation with the Commission on Accreditation in Physical Therapy Education that indicates the program is progressing toward accreditation.
