University of Saint Mary To Host Open House For Prospective Students Friday, Feb. 24

1- 4 p.m. Friday, Feb. 24, 2006

(Leavenworth, Kan.)—"Prepare for Life." That's the aim of the University of Saint Mary, Leavenworth's only four-year residential university. It's time you discovered all that USM can do for you. See for yourself when USM hosts an Open House for students and parents from 1 – 4 p.m. Friday, Feb. 24.

The open house is designed to provide high school seniors and parents with information about how Saint Mary can prepare students for virtually any career. Students can discover all USM has to offer, including:

- USM's Free laptop program for full-time, incoming freshmen
- Scholarships and financial aid, including grants
- 25 academic programs, including USM's newest additions, Nursing and Criminology
- Unique teaching approach with more hands-on experience and less lecturing
- Student life and life on campus
- Collegiate athletics, including USM's eight varsity sports teams and new workout facilities
- Theatre productions and concerts, and other opportunities to get involved on campus

USM's Open House also includes meetings with professors, give-a-ways, tours of the historic campus, and student-led activities. Friendly, professional faculty and staff will be on hand to answer any and all questions.

Call 1-800-752-7043 to attend, or register to attend online at: www.stmary.edu.
