USM Alum's Cabaret Show Highlights October Saint Mary Music Events

Tammy Meneghini Performs 7:30 p.m. Oct. 24 in Xavier Theatre

(Leavenworth, Kan.)—The University of Saint Mary department of fine arts proudly welcomes back 1990 USM grad Tammy Meneghini for “This Place Called Love (Songs From the Heartland),” her one-woman cabaret show at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 24, in Xavier Theatre on the university’s Leavenworth campus, 4100 South 4th Street.

Meneghini, who teaches at the University of Colorado at Boulder, has performed her show in several states and describes the performance as “filled with songs and stories about what happens when an unexpected loved comes true.”

The show is free and open to the public, though donations at the door are welcome. Any proceeds go toward the University of Saint Mary scholarship fund.

Also this month, USM’s department of fine arts-music is presenting the new academic year’s first student recital at 7 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 20, in the Walnut Room of Mead Hall on the main campus. The recital is free and open to the public

Saint Mary students as well as area high school students will perform solo voice and piano selections by various composers, including Faure, Haydn, Handel, and Mendelssohn.

The recital will mark the debut of USM junior Jenna Schwinn and Leavenworth High School students Gwen Akins and Mariah Taylor.

Contact Dr. William Krusemark, chair of the USM fine arts department, at (913) 758-6460 or krusemarkw@stmary.edu for more information.
