

USM Scares Up "A Little Fright Music"
For Halloween Concert
7 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 28, 2008

The University of Saint Mary Department of Fine Arts—Music will present its annual Halloween Concert, "A Little Fright Music," at 7 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 28, 2008, in Xavier Theatre, located at 4100 South 4th Street in Leavenworth, Kan.

Some of the seasonal music will include selections from "Phantom of the Opera," "In the Hall of the Mountain King," "Hedwig's Theme" and "Double Trouble" from the "Harry Potter" movies, "Danse Macabre," and "Monster Mash." The USM Concert Chorale, Community Band, and String Ensemble will perform under the direction of Dr. William Krusemark and Freda Proctor.

The chorale and band members will be dressed in Halloween costumes. The audience is encouraged to wear Halloween appropriate attire, and will be invited to join the choir in a pumpkin carol sing-along. There will also be a costume contest for children Fifth Grade and under. Prizes will be awarded.

The concert is free and will last approximately one hour. Xavier Theatre is on the third floor of Xavier Hall on the main campus in Leavenworth. Call Freda Proctor at 913-758-6320 or email proctorf@stmary.edu for more information.

###